Re: Consent Letter Motion to Extend Deadline to Respond to the Complaint
Doe v. New York University, No. 21-cv-2199 (SHS)

Dear Judge Stein:

As you know, we represent New York University ("NYU") in the above-referenced matter. We write, pursuant to Section 1.E of the Court's Individual Practices, to seek an extension of the deadline for NYU to respond to the complaint in this case. The current deadline for NYU to move, answer, or otherwise respond to the complaint is April 5, 2021.

In light of Plaintiff's pending motion for a preliminary injunction and the April 2, 2021 due date for NYU's opposition papers, NYU respectfully requests that the Court adjourn NYU's deadline to respond to the complaint sine die, and direct the parties to jointly submit a proposed schedule for next steps to the Court no later than seven (7) days after the Court's ruling on the motion.

NYU submits that this would be the most efficient course of action for the parties and the Court; the Court's decision on the motion is likely to inform the parties' thinking on the most sensible course of action in several respects, and deferring the deadline to respond to the complaint would avoid the inefficiency of potentially duplicative briefing.

We have spoken with Plaintiff's counsel and they consent to this request. No prior requests to extend this deadline have been made. We thank the Court for its consideration.

Respectfully submitted,
